HONORING MEMORY OF NATION BUILDER

tion-builder who gave the empire a period of tranquility and progress to prepare it for the glorious work of the Meiji era.

The semi-official Japan Times said: "The feudal system which Ieyasu established and handed down was, we think, an inevitable incident in the progress of the nation, which could be rectified only after a period of peace. Peace, then, was the first and last aim of Ieyasu. The laws governing Buddhism, the revival of learning, the banishment of Christianity and every other measure that he took after he had risen to the supreme power, were all for the cultivation, ennoblement and embellishment of peace. Wise and far seeing, he was frugal and yet generous, big-hearted and yet sometimes very vindictive and merciless—all because he wished peace for his house and peace for the nation."

YOUNG WIFE TIRES OF HER EXISTENCE

Weary of the game of life, Mrs. H. C. Robinson, 22 years of age, wife of H. C. Robinson, a resident of Carlin, attempted suicide in San Francisco by swallowing the contents of two small phials of chloroform in a Market street candy store.

RECEPTION PREPARED FOR GRAND OFFICER

GRAND TREASURER HUGHES ARRIVES ON A VISIT TO LOCAL EAGLES

Frederick Hughes, grand treasurer of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, was an arrival on train 23 this morning. He will be entertained by the local aerie at its hall this evening. Mr. Hughes is serving his fourth term as grand treasurer of the Eagles. He is an attorney and counselor-at-law, having been in active practice for 20 years, and has served as acting judge and assistant corporation counsel in the city of New York and also two years as county attorney of Westchester county, New York. He has traveled all over the United States several times in the interests of the Eagles and Elks and is one of the best known fraternal men in the country, being a past grand officer in the R. P. O. E., the Royal Arcanum, the Loyal Association and the Order of Iroquois.

There will be something doing every moment at the Eagles meeting in Odd Fellows hall this evening, as the committee having charge of the entertainment of the distinguished visitor has prepared an elaborate program and all Eagles and visiting members are invited to attend.

BIG CATTLE DEAL IS CONSUMMATED

ONE THOUSAND HEAD OF CATTLE SOLD FOR CONSIDERATION OF $40,000

Former Senator Tom J. Bell of Reese river has just consummated an important deal. He has sold the remainder of the James Wood cattle, fifty head of cows and calves going to Dave Stevens of Cloverdale, fifty to Jake Gooding, and the Wood brand, with nearly 1000 head of stock, to J. B. Humphrey. The latter is said to have paid Senator Bell $40,000.

This deal was consummated yesterday in Tonopah. The Wood brand has been familiar on the Nye county ranges for the past 35 years. Mr. Wood, as age approached, felt he desired to retire from active business and enjoy the fruits of his labors. He first sold his water right in Jett canyon to the Round Mountain Mining company and disposed of his large land holdings in Smokey valley, retaining only a small parcel of land on which the family residence stands, so that he may return at his pleasure and mingle with the friends of a lifetime, for whom the latching is always out. The range over which the Wood cattle roam is so extensive that it will be a year or more before they are all rounded up.

TAX MONEY IS NOW COMING IN RAPIDLY

The second installment of taxes for 1914 will go delinquent after next Monday. The property owners were somewhat slow in making settlement, but during the past few days the money has been rolling in. Usually the big companies are among the latest to pay, in order to have the use of their money until the last moment, but several of them have already made settlement with the county treasurer. The delinquent list promises to be brief.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

The tax rolls will be open until 5 p. m. Monday, June 7th, for the collection of the second installment of 1914 taxes. After that date the delinquent penalties provided by the statutes will be added. Do not delay paying your taxes until the last hour.

N. K. FRANKLIN, Ex-Officio Tax Collector.

TREATING SWEEPS AT THE McNAMARA MILL

ONE HUNDRED TONS ARRIVE AND THE FIRST BATCH IS BEING RUN

The McNamara mill, after long idleness, due to suspension of mining by that company, today resumed activity, six men being employed in the cyanide department, where certain changes have been made preparatory to treating the sweeps of the district. The process that will be employed was devised by local metallurgists. It will remain a secret until the patent, which has been applied for, is granted.

Yesterday the first consignment of sweeps arrived. One was from the Ben Luce pond in this city and the other from Fioathe and Hands' pond at Millers. The aggregate was 100 tons. Quite a few shipments will be made to the mill next week. The discoverers of the process expect to treat 15 tons daily for the season, making a total of about 2000 tons. These sweeps run considerably higher than the average value of the ore mined in the district. The process of obtaining them, which was described recently in the Bonanza, is very interesting and employs quite a number of men.

AMUSEMENTS

PASTIME THEATER

"Hearts and Flowers," an artistic production portrayed by an artist known and beloved the world over—Mrs. Thomas Whiffen—will be shown at the Pastime today. The picture is in five parts and is of intense heart interest. Supporting Mrs. Whiffen is that popular motion picture actress, Miss Beulah Poynter. It is the story of a mother's devotion for her son. The son, leaving his mother on the farm, seeks his fortune in the city. He soon spends the money given him by his mother and, believing that he can make a "killing" in stocks, induces her to let him have $100. He loses the money and, knowing that he does not pay it back soon the mortgage will be foreclosed on the farm and his mother forced to leave. He ignores her pleas for help, and when she finally is forced to come to the city to live, he is so ashamed of her appearance that he neglects her. Elsa Norman, an heiress with whom Tom is in love, finds her in the lobby of the building where Tom has his office, learns her identity, and spurs Tom's love. She pays off the mortgage on the farm, the mother returns there to live and is later joined by her son, whom she has forgiven and who wins back Elsa's love.

Tomorrow that famous book, "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," in pictures. —Adv.

BUTLER THEATER

A splendid Laskey production built on the famous Belasco success and filmed in a masterly manner will be the attraction at the Butler tonight. It is a Paramount five-reel feature entitled "The Woman," and one of the greatest productions ever filmed. The critics review it as follows: "All hits and no misses," is the way to sum up this great feature. "The Woman" has a powerful and fascinating plot taken from modern American life and every inch is vibrant with human interest. The interplay of politics and social life, the weaving of a supreme human motive into the fabric of the story and his sudden and stirring denouement, make "The Woman" a true masterpiece. The histrionic honors of the play, it seems to me, go to Lois Meredith, whose portrayal of the telephone girl won the audience at the Strand theater, New York, almost at the very first appearance. The scenes in the house of representatives, the atmosphere of the lobby, the lights and shadows of life in Washington, all helped to make "The Woman" what it is—a genuine masterpiece. Gloria Mayne will be heard in "Moments from Grand Opera" and "My Beautiful Ladies." Special music by Professor Sobek, assisted by the Butler orchestra. —Adv.
